

Home Decoration- Some Tips on Home Decoration

Home decoration should be a well-planned process. You need to have a very clear picture in your mind about the look your home will have after decoration. You should plan accordingly. Go for the details at the planning stage itself.

You do not go for home decoration very often. Hence evaluate the changes that you are contemplating. What is in vogue today may not remain so next year, as very little of what was in vogue last year is popular now. So don't take hasty decisions about what to shop.

You know the saying that old is gold. Well, some items which were popular when you were a child continue to be a proud possession. And remember, diamonds are for ever. No wonder the old chandeliers are still popular. You might have seen them in your ancestral house. Perhaps they were there even before the power of electricity. Dozens of lamps used to illuminate the castles of barons.

Take mature decision. The key of mature decisions is think beyond today. You can not know what will be in vogue tomorrow. But you can make a guess about what which is very fashionable today, is not likely to survive. Yes, this is important because your home after decoration should remain attractive for many years to come.

Before starting home decoration some tips need to be remembered.

New and old - Decorating items of the 60s and 70s have come back and are used to create a sense of fun. It is always better to go for truly contemporary twist instead of choosing a mere duplication of traditional items.

Furniture - Plastic tables and bean bag chairs are always popular for home decoration. The inflatable chairs are also of good purpose. These things are very useful as patio furniture.

Fabric - The fabrics in bright colours and patterns like plaid or paisley looks better. One could use mixing patterns of it. A few pillows on the sofa and adding a few area rugs for splashes increase the overall look of the room.

Colour-scheme - A thumb rule of decoration is that pale colours are used for a small room while deep colours are used for bigger rooms. This also applies to various other items like furniture pieces and curtains. Choice of colours and their shades is very important because it must conform to the central theme of your house.

For a feeling of relaxation and comfort, there must be a design in your choice of colour and its shade. One more important thing to keep in mind is that different items like furniture, curtains show-pieces should be in happy harmony with the colour of wall paint or wall-paper. They can differ only to the extent that they blend pleasantly or look complimentary.

Accessories - The accessories which are used for decorating a home should be enjoyable. A rotary phone, lava lamps or record albums are wonderful items to keep in a room. Rock posters from 60s and 70s can also be framed.

One can also shop the decorating items and furniture through online. Some great items can be generally discovered at somewhat lower offer price.
